Campus Advisors Acknowledgement and Consent

The CLS Program works with faculty members and administrators at colleges and universities across the United States who assist students with the CLS application process. As part of the application process we share your name, email address, and information on your degree program and the language you are applying for with the designated advisor(s) at your school, who may reach out to you to offer assistance and encourage you to submit an application.

We also encourage you to reach out to CLS advisors on your campus proactively. You can search for CLS advisors on your campus on the CLS Program website at <https://www.clscholarship.org/universities>. If you do not have a CLS advisor on your campus, or if you would like additional assistance, staff at your school's study abroad department, fellowships advising office, honors program, career advising office, and/or your academic advisor may be good resources. Your school may also have a writing center that would be happy to work with you on your application. Do a little research and you can make your application the best that it can be!

Your choice to submit this application indicates your consent to have this information shared as described. Please see our Privacy Policy at <https://www.clscholarship.org/privacy-policy> for more information about how the CLS Program protects your information.

I have reviewed the CLS website and identified an advisor or other resources on my campus who can assist me in understanding the CLS Program and preparing an effective application.

Section 1: Application Instructions

How to Apply

- Eligibility: Check the eligibility requirements at www.clscholarship.org/applicants/eligibility.
- Applications are due November 19, 2019.
- Recommendations: Have two references submit recommendation forms supporting your application. Recommendation forms are due November 22, 2019.

Do not wait until the due date to submit your application. Submitting your application before the due date is recommended for timeliness, and it also allows you time to resolve any technical difficulties or last minute questions. Submitting the application early also helps to ensure that the recommendations are submitted on time. Recommendation forms are due on November 22, 2019, three days after applications must be submitted.

The CLS Program strongly encourages you to submit your application well in advance of the application deadline. The CLS Program and American Councils for International Education bear no responsibility for problems in submitting the application.

Accessibility

If you need to submit any portion of your application materials by mail, those documents must be received at American Councils for International Education by November 19, 2019.

Mailed materials should be sent by certified post to American Councils at the following address:

ATTN: CLS Program
American Councils for International Education
1828 L St NW, Suite 1200
Washington DC 20036-5136

Section 2: Program Overview and Requirements

The Critical Language Scholarship (CLS) Program is an intensive overseas language and cultural immersion program for American students enrolled at U.S. colleges and universities. Students spend eight to ten weeks abroad studying one of 15 critical languages. The program includes intensive language instruction and structured cultural enrichment experiences designed to promote rapid language gains.

The Critical Language Scholarship Program is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State with funding provided by the U.S. Government and administered by American Councils for International Education.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the CLS Program you must:

- Be a U.S. citizen or national at the time of your application.
 - Others, including Permanent Residents, are not eligible, even if they anticipate naturalization by the beginning of the program.
- Be enrolled in an accredited U.S. degree-granting program at the undergraduate (associate's, bachelor's) or graduate (master's, doctoral, professional degree) level at the time of your application.
 - Your program must result in a degree. Applicants who are taking stand-alone or continuing education classes are not eligible.
 - Your institution must be an accredited U.S. institution. Students earning degrees at foreign institutions that are not based in the U.S. or its territories are not eligible, even if those institutions are accredited by a recognized U.S. accrediting agency.
 - You must be enrolled at this institution in the fall term of 2018. Limited exceptions apply; please read the following information carefully:
 - If you are not taking classes at your home institution in the fall term, please confirm that you are, in fact, enrolled. Institutions have different requirements to maintain enrollment status and you will be required to provide a signed letter from your registrar stating that you were enrolled during the fall term.
 - If you are taking a leave of absence to participate in an organized term- or year-long study abroad program, or to participate in a substantive internship program, you may request an exception to the enrollment requirement. Exceptions may only be granted in these two cases, and decisions will be made on a case-by-case basis.
 - In either case, you must submit a signed letter from your home college or university in the U.S. explaining your situation and your intention to re-enroll following the completion of your study abroad or internship program. You must also submit documentation from the program provider explaining the opportunity and confirming your participation. This documentation may be submitted to American Councils by email at cls@americancouncils.org.
 - You must successfully complete academic requirements for the fall term in order to remain eligible for the CLS Program. Students who withdraw or fail to maintain a passing grade average are not eligible to participate in the program.
- Be at least 18 years old by May 15, 2020.

Please submit your application using the online application system at <https://ais.americancouncils.org/cls>

- If in an undergraduate program (bachelor's or associate's), complete at least one full year of study (two semesters or three quarters) by the beginning of the CLS Program in summer 2020.
- You may only apply once, for one language program, each summer. Applicants who submit multiple applications will be considered ineligible.
- Participation is limited to a total of two CLS awards for any individual. Applicants who have been selected for and participated in the CLS Program one time can apply for a second award. Applicants who have successfully completed the CLS Program two or more times are not eligible.

The following persons are ineligible for the CLS Program:

- Employees of the U.S. Department of State who work in offices under the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Academic Programs, in the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA), for a period ending one year following the termination of such employment;
- Employees of private and public agencies under contract or grant with the U.S. Department of State who perform services related to the Critical Language Scholarship Program, for a period ending one year following the termination of their services; or
- Immediate family members (i.e., spouses and dependent children) of the individuals described in the above paragraphs, for a period ending one year following the termination of such employment or service. This provision does not disqualify self-supporting members of families who live apart from their parents.

These provisions do not extend to part-time or temporary employees, consultants, or interns of the U.S. Department of State (including at U.S. Embassies and Consulates), or to contract employees of the U.S. Department of State, unless such persons perform services related to the Critical Language Scholarship Program.

For applicants to the Fulbright U.S. Student Program

Applicants to the CLS Program may apply for and receive both a CLS Program award and a Fulbright U.S. Student Program award in the same academic year. However, participants may not accept both a CLS Program award and the Fulbright Critical Language Enhancement Award, which provides supplemental critical language study funding for Fulbright U.S. Student Program grantees, in the same academic year.

If a participant receives a Fulbright grant with a mandatory pre-departure orientation in Washington, D.C. that falls during the CLS Program period, he or she may need to choose between accepting the CLS Program award and the Fulbright grant.

Felony and misdemeanor convictions

Applicant situations involving a felony or misdemeanor conviction will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. Minor traffic violations do not need to be reported as misdemeanors. Please note that the applicant may also be asked to submit supporting documentation.

University disciplinary action

Applicant situations involving university disciplinary action will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. Please note that the applicant may also be asked to submit supporting documentation.

Failure of an applicant to fully report felony and misdemeanor convictions or university disciplinary action will result in termination of the application.

Participation Requirements

The health and well-being of participants and staff are top priorities of the CLS Program. The CLS Program is a rigorous immersion program and may be physically and emotionally challenging. Each student must be committed to working hard and participating fully in the group program, beginning with the mandatory pre-departure orientation through the completion of the program.

Each participant must:

- Be able to stay alert and to focus attention for up to several hours at a time during classes, while participating in cultural activities, and when receiving staff instructions.
- Attend daily classes and activities, as dictated by the program schedule and for the duration of the program (program dates will be announced prior to the deadline for accepting the award, if offered).
- If taking prescription medications, be able to maintain proper dosage without assistance from instructors or others (except in emergency situations).
- Work effectively as a member of a team despite potentially stressful and difficult conditions. This may require problem solving on an interpersonal or group level as well as a willingness to accept differences.
- Contribute to a safe learning environment. No inappropriate verbal or physical behavior toward others, either in person or online, is tolerated for any reason.
- Effectively communicate ideas and concerns on an individual and group level.
- Perform necessary self-care, including maintaining adequate nutrition and hydration, dressing appropriately for environmental conditions, maintaining personal hygiene, and managing known medical conditions.
- Comprehend, and follow detailed instructions on travel, risk management, personal care, hazard avoidance, and other topics.
- With reasonable accommodations, be able to navigate transportation independently between program-provided housing and the institute site, a maximum of approximately one hour each way.

Note that some program dates may overlap with the spring or fall academic term at your institution, and it may be necessary to work with your institution to accommodate the program dates.

Medical Review

If selected for a CLS award, you will be required to submit a medical information form and physician's statement to the CLS Program for review by an independent medical professional. Results of the medical review will determine if you meet medical requirements necessary for program placement and participation in the CLS Program. You must also inform the program of any changes in your health status between submission of these forms and the start of the summer program in order to participate.

Visas

All finalists must receive an appropriate visa from their country of study (deadlines vary by country).

- The CLS Program, American Councils for International Education and the U.S. Department of State will assist you with your visa application, but cannot influence a foreign government's decision of whether or not to issue a visa. The decision to issue a visa rests solely with the government and consular mission of the country to which a student is traveling.

- CLS Program finalists and, in some cases, alternates may be required to work closely with CLS Program staff on preparing their paperwork well in advance of regular deadlines in order to receive a visa.
- Failure to meet deadlines or respond in a timely manner to CLS program staff requests may result in not being issued a visa and therefore not being able to participate in the program.
- Finalists for the CLS Program may be required to submit their passports for visa processing in the spring, prior to the program start date. This may require finalists to cancel or reschedule planned international travel in order to participate on the CLS Program.

Military Affiliation

The CLS Program welcomes applicants who bear affiliation with the U.S. armed services. Active duty service members, reservists, and ROTC and military academy cadets are eligible for the CLS Program provided they meet all other eligibility requirements.

If you have a military affiliation, however, please note that there may be other requirements or restrictions placed on you for your participation in the program by your command, including but not restricted to passport or visa requirements, special waiver requirements, or prohibition of travel to the host country. Requirements or restrictions related to military affiliation are outside of the control of the CLS Program, American Councils, and the U.S. Department of State. You are advised to seek advice from the appropriate commanding officer before completing the CLS application.

Additional Requirements

If you are selected for a CLS Program award, as a requirement of your participation you must agree to the terms and conditions of the award. A copy of the terms and conditions for the 2019 summer program can be found online at the address below. The award terms and conditions are revised on an annual basis and may change before the 2019 summer program.

Privacy Policy and Use of Personal Data

Your privacy is important to us. American Councils for International Education (American Councils) follows a few fundamental principles with regards to your data.

- We are thoughtful about the personal information we ask you to provide and the personal information that we collect about you.
- We store personal information for only as long as we have a reason to keep it.
- We aim for transparency on how we gather, use, and share your personal information.

By starting an application to the CLS Program, you agree to our privacy policy, which incorporates and clarifies these principles. You can review our full privacy policy at <https://clscholarship.org/privacy-policy>.

What is Covered

The CLS Program covers most of the costs of participating in its overseas institutes, including:

- International and domestic travel between the student's U.S. home city, Washington, D.C., and the CLS Program site;
- Visa application fees;
- Costs associated with the mandatory pre-departure orientation in Washington, D.C.;
- Language instruction, room, board, program-sponsored travel within the host country;
- All entrance fees for program activities;
- Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) language assessments; and
- U.S. academic credit issued through Bryn Mawr College.

The following expenses will not be covered by the CLS Program:

- U.S. passport fees; and
- The cost of medical exams and any follow-up visits necessary to pass the medical review process, as determined by the CLS Program.

Selection Process

Award recipients are selected on the basis of merit, with consideration for the following:

- Commitment to language learning;
- Connection between language and goals;
- Preparation for the CLS Program;
- Adaptability, sensitivity and resilience; and
- Contribution to the CLS Program and program goals.

Read the full selection criteria at <https://clscholarship.org/applicants/selection>.

First Round Reviews: Each application is read by two independent evaluators chosen from a pool of faculty and administrators at colleges, universities, and international education institutions across the U.S.

All applicants will be contacted in late January by email with a notification of whether their application passed the initial review process.

Semi-finalist Reviews: Top applicants are reviewed by panels of academic and international education experts, who convene in Washington, D.C. in early February.

Finalists, alternates and non-recipients will be notified of their statuses by email in early March.

Those selected for the award will have approximately two weeks to accept or decline. Alternates are promoted on a rolling basis throughout the spring.

Finalists and alternates will receive further information on program requirements, including the medical review and visa process, at this time.

Section 3: Eligibility

1) I am a U.S. citizen or national (including naturalized U.S. citizen).

- Yes
 No

2) I will be at least 18 years old by May 15, 2020.

- Yes
 No

3) I am currently enrolled in a degree-granting program.

- Yes
 No

3a) If no, please explain

Maximum of 100 words allowed.

4) Are you currently taking a leave of absence?

- Yes
 No

4a) If yes, please explain below. Students on a leave of absence during the fall semester are only eligible if they are participating in an organized semester- or year-long study abroad program or a substantive internship program and intend to re-enroll following its completion.

Note that you will be required to submit documentation of your study abroad or internship program and a signed letter from your home college or university in the U.S. explaining your situation and your intention to re-enroll following the completion of your program. This documentation should be submitted to American Councils at cls@americancouncils.org no later than November 22, 2019.

Maximum of 100 words allowed.

5) My institution is an accredited institution based in the United States. (Note: Students earning degrees at foreign colleges or universities that are not based in the United States or its territories are not eligible.)

- Yes
 No

6) By the program start date (summer 2020), I will have completed at least one academic year of study at the college level (two semesters or three quarters).

- Yes
 No

7) I understand that if I am selected for the CLS Program award, I will be required to submit a medical information form and physician's statement for review by an independent medical professional. Results of the medical review will determine if I meet medical requirements necessary for program placement and participation in the CLS Program.

The CLS Program does not discriminate on the basis of medical condition or disability.

- Yes

8) I understand that if I am selected for a CLS Program award, my participation depends on the decision by the host country to issue me a visa that is appropriate and valid for the CLS Program. The decision to issue a visa is made at the sole discretion of the host country and neither American Councils nor the U.S. Department of State has control over visa decisions by host countries.

Yes

9) I am submitting only one CLS Program application for only one language.

Yes

10) I certify that I have reviewed the eligibility requirements, and that I am eligible to apply for the CLS Program.

A full description of the eligibility requirements is available at www.clscholarship.org/applicants/eligibility

Yes

- Yes
 No

7a) If yes, please provide date of naturalization.

Permanent Address and Congressional District

Please enter your permanent residential address, at which you are registered to vote. The CLS Program informs members of Congress when constituents from their states or districts receive a CLS award. Your address should match the congressional district you indicate.

8) Residential Address

For example, if you live in Rhode Island but attend school in Illinois, then please indicate your address in Rhode Island.

Street Address:

City:

Province/State/Governorate:

Country:

Postal/ZIP Code:

9) U.S. Congressional District

To find your congressional district, please visit <https://www.house.gov/representatives/find-your-representative>

9a) State/Territory

9b) District

Indicate the district number for your Congressional district.

Enter "At Large" for states with only one (1) Congressional representative (Alaska, Delaware, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Vermont, and Wyoming), and for the District of Columbia and U.S. territories (American Samoa, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and U.S. Virgin Islands)

Current Contact Information

10) Primary Telephone Number

Will be used for duration of program, through October 2020.

11) Alternate Telephone Number

We will only contact you at this number if we are unable to reach you and there is important or time-sensitive information to share. We strongly recommend applicants enter an alternate number or the number of a close friend or family member.

12) Primary Email Address

This email address will be used to inform applicants of their selection status in January and March, 2020. We recommend not using your university address, because it might expire when you graduate.

13) Alternate Email Address

Such as your university address.

Passport Information

14) Do you have a U.S. passport with your legal name valid through December 2020 (or if you are a CLS Russian applicant, through March 2021) with two blank visa pages?

You do not need to have a passport to apply for the CLS Program. However, all finalists are required to have a valid passport by March 2020 in order to participate in the program.

You may need to apply for a new passport if:

- You do not currently have a U.S. passport;
- Your passport is not valid through the above dates; or

Please submit your application using the online application system at <https://ais.americancouncils.org/cls>

- Your passport does not have two blank visa/stamp pages. (Note that it is no longer possible to add new pages to U.S. passports. You must apply for a new passport.)

If you do not take measures to secure a passport by March 2020, you will be responsible for any fees associated with expediting your passport.

For more information on securing a passport, please visit <http://www.travel.state.gov/>.

Section 12-14: Recommendation Requests

What Is Required?

- Your application must include two recommendations from two different individuals. At least one of your recommendation forms should come from someone familiar with your academic performance, preferably at the university level. Each form should be completed by someone who can speak to your suitability for the CLS Program.
- All recommendation forms must be submitted in English and cannot be completed by a family member. Recommendations should answer the prompts provided by the CLS Program on the form provided. Letters of recommendation will not be accepted.

When Are Recommendation Forms Due?

- Recommendations are due November 22, 2019, 5:00 PM U.S. Eastern Time. It is your responsibility to follow up with your recommender and ensure that recommendation forms are received by the deadline. Note that student applications are due November 19, three days BEFORE the recommendation deadline.

How to Get a Solid Recommendation

- Request your recommendations well in advance of the deadline! Your recommenders are likely busy people and writing a solid recommendation takes time. Give your recommenders as much lead time as possible.
- Identify possible recommenders: A good recommender should know you well and be able to offer a testimony from their experience working with you. Consider what you would like the CLS Program to know about you that your school records will not communicate. What makes you special, and sets you apart as a student? Recommenders may include professors, instructors, administrators, guidance counselors, coaches, employers, or community service supervisors. At least one of your recommenders should be familiar with your academic performance.
- Contact your recommenders: When you have chosen your recommender, reach out to them and request a recommendation, explaining the deadlines and what is required. If they agree, propose a time to meet in person or by telephone. Send them a copy of the recommendation form in advance of your meeting.
- Meet with your recommenders: Spend some time talking with your recommenders, explaining the CLS Program and your interest in studying the target language. It's important that they understand your motivation, your academic background, and what you see as the benefits of participating in the CLS Program. It's a good idea to bring a draft of your answers to the application essay questions and a copy of your resume to show to them. You can also explain some of the things that make your candidacy unique, or that set you apart as a student.
- Send a reminder and thank you note: A week before the application deadline, send each of your recommenders an email reminding them of the approaching deadline and thanking them for agreeing to complete a recommendation for you. Don't forget to thank them again after everything has been submitted.

For the Recommender

Dear recommender,

You have been asked to serve as a reference for a student applying to the Critical Language Scholarship (CLS) Program. The CLS Program is an intensive overseas language and cultural immersion program for American students enrolled at U.S. colleges and universities. The program includes intensive language instruction and structured cultural enrichment experiences designed to promote rapid language gains.

The CLS Program is a program of the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA). The goal of ECA is to promote mutual understanding between the people of the United States and people of other countries by means of educational and cultural exchange that assist in the development of peaceful relations. The CLS Program is part of a U.S. government effort to expand dramatically the number of Americans studying and mastering critical foreign languages. Students of diverse disciplines and majors are encouraged to apply. Participants are expected to continue their language study beyond the scholarship period, and later apply their critical language skills in their future professional careers.

What are we looking for?

Award recipients are selected on the basis of merit, with consideration for:

- Academic record and potential to succeed in a rigorous academic setting;
- Commitment to language learning;
- Connection between target language and career/academic goals;
- Ability to adapt to an intensive program and a challenging cultural environment; and
- Contribution to the CLS Program and program goals.

In the CLS application, students are asked to submit short essays addressing these criteria, including their motivation for applying to the program, their academic and professional goals, and their ability to be successful on a rigorous, group-based overseas program. During the selection process, applications are evaluated based on each student's application as well as the input of two recommenders.

Recommendation form

We request that you submit your recommendation through our online form. Only if you are unable to submit an electronic recommendation form, you may mail a paper version, or email us the answers to the questions below.

Please note that if you choose to submit a paper reference form or email us your responses, any text that exceeds the specified maximum word limits will not be attached to the application. Any text that surpasses this limit will be cut out when the form is entered into our application system.

As someone who knows the applicant, we ask that you provide answers to the questions below. When responding to each question, we encourage you to share specific examples that will help provide the selection panel with a better understanding of the applicant's ability to be a successful participant on the CLS Program.

- 1. First and Last Name:
- 2. Job Title:
- 3. Institution Name:
- 4. Email Address:
5. How long have you known the applicant and in what capacity? (Maximum of 100 words allowed)
6. The CLS Program is an intensive, group-based language and culture program. This program requires students to study a language intensively in a situation of prolonged interaction with fellow students and to function in a challenging social and cultural environment. Please comment on the applicant's emotional and social maturity and their ability to cooperate with a group of people. (Maximum of 200 words allowed)
7. The ability to function in an immersive, often ambiguous, cultural climate is very important to a participant's success. Maturity, flexibility and a willingness to engage with and adapt to a new environment and culture is critical for every participant on the CLS Program. Please describe the applicant's open-mindedness toward new ideas and the applicant's ability to adapt to new situations. (Maximum of 200 words allowed)
8. CLS Program institutes cover approximately one academic year of university-level language coursework during an eight- to ten-week program. Please comment on the applicant's overall preparedness for a rigorous academic program. If you are familiar with the applicant's language-learning abilities, please also comment on the applicant's aptitude for learning a new language. (Maximum of 200 words allowed)

Please submit your application using the online application system at <https://ais.americancouncils.org/cls>

9. What additional strengths do you think the applicant will bring to the CLS group? (Maximum of 200 words allowed)

Additionally, please provide a response to the following prompt:

10. Do you have any concerns about the applicant's ability to successfully complete the CLS program? (Maximum of 200 words allowed)

Send this form, along with your completed answers to:

ATTN: CLS Program (Recommendation)
American Councils for International Education
1828 L St NW Ste 1200
Washington DC 20036-5136

Alternatively, you may email your responses to: cls@americancouncils.org

Recommendations must be received no later than Friday, November 22, 2019.

Section 15: Activities and Employment

1) List up to five jobs, internships, and/or volunteer or campus activities that you have engaged in that demonstrate leadership capacity, community involvement or a connection to your professional goals. Include the following information:

- Activity Name
- Start Date
- End Date

Section 16: Previous Programs, Honors, and Fellowships

CLS Program Awards

1) Have you applied for the CLS Program in the past?

- Yes
- No

1a) If yes, have you received a CLS Program award in the past?

- I received a CLS award and completed the program
- I received a CLS award, but did not attend the program
- I received a CLS award but declined
- I received a CLS award but did not successfully complete the program
- No, I have not previously received a CLS award

(i) If yes, are you applying for the same language as the CLS Program you completed previously?

- Yes, I am applying for the same language as a CLS Program I completed previously
- No, I am applying for a different language from the CLS Program I completed previously

(i-i) If no, please explain how you are maintaining your language skills in the language for which you first received a CLS Award. Please address how learning an additional language will contribute to your academic and professional goals. Please comment on how you plan to use knowledge of both of these languages in your professional future.

Maximum of 150 words allowed.

(ii) If decline, please provide a short description of the reason that you declined the previous offer to participate in CLS. Please describe the difference that would allow you to participate in the program if awarded a CLS this year.

Minimum of 150 words required.

(ii-i) If did not successfully complete, please provide a short description explaining why you had to withdraw or were asked to leave the CLS Program.

Maximum of 150 words allowed.

(ii-ii) If you completed the program previously, please explain why the CLS Program is the best way for you to continue your language study. Please comment on why your additional participation in CLS would be a good investment for the U.S. government.

Maximum of 150 words allowed.

1b) Please indicate all CLS Programs attended from 2006-2019. Include the following information:

- Year
- Language
- Level

- Yes
- No

Honors and Fellowships

3) Please list up to three other fellowships or academic honors that you have received.

Section 17: Short Essays

Before you begin your essays, it is strongly recommended that you read the information on the CLS website pertaining to your language and watch the video providing guidance for writing effective application essays for the CLS Program at www.clscholarship.org/apply.

If you have previously participated in the CLS Program, you may not reuse the same essay responses from your previous application(s). If you applied previously but were not selected, you may reuse material from your previous application(s) if you wish.

1) Resilience

Maximum of 300 words allowed.

Successful study abroad experiences often require traits such as flexibility, tolerance, openness, and adaptability. On the CLS Program, you will be exposed to new beliefs, values, attitudes, and opinions. For example, you might find that there are differences in concepts of privacy; socially acceptable behaviors; the role of the individual in society; and/or values and political viewpoints.

- Give an example of when you had to adapt to a new environment or situation.
- Based on that experience, what are your strategies for interacting with people who are different from you or situations that are unfamiliar?

2) Preparation for the CLS Program

Maximum of 300 words allowed.

The CLS Program is an intensive, group-based overseas learning experience. The program involves adapting to a new culture and environment, an intensive academic program, and mandatory cultural activities that may not always align with your interests. CLS involves building new relationships with people from the host country and functioning day-to-day in another language. CLS cohorts are often very diverse and maintaining positive group relations can be challenging. There may also be challenges specific to the location in which you study, and your own identity, background, and experiences.

- What aspects of the CLS Program do you expect will be the most challenging for you?
- What knowledge, skills, and experiences will you draw on to meet these challenges?

3) Citizen Diplomacy

Maximum of 300 words allowed.

A key goal of the CLS Program is to increase the number and diversity of Americans who study and speak critical languages in order to develop mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries. Languages offer an opportunity for communication and exchange, providing the foundation of a more peaceful world. CLS Program scholars bear responsibility for representing the United States as citizen diplomats in their host communities; they reflect a diversity of values, beliefs, and opinions that is fundamental to providing a balanced representation of the United States abroad (see the diversity statement of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs at <https://eca.state.gov/files/bureau/diversity.pdf>). CLS Program scholars are expected to contribute to the goal of building mutual understanding by sharing what it means to be an American, learning about the host culture, and building meaningful relationships. After the program, alumni share their overseas experiences with others in the United States.

- Make a case for how you will serve as an effective citizen diplomat abroad. How could you contribute to the mission of building mutual understanding between the people of your home community and the people of your host community?

4) Commitment to Language Study

Maximum of 200 words allowed.

The CLS Program seeks to support students who are committed to acquiring a high level of linguistic and cultural knowledge about the regions and countries in which they study.

- What interests you about your chosen target language and the people who speak it?
- How will you continue to study this language after the CLS Program?

Section 18: Statement of Purpose

If you have previously participated in the CLS Program, you may not reuse the same essay response from your previous application(s). If you applied previously but were not selected, you may reuse material from your previous application(s) if you wish.

1) Statement of Purpose

Maximum of 500 words allowed.

Please address the following questions in your statement of purpose:

- How will increased language and cultural knowledge help you achieve your future academic or professional goals?
- Why is participation in the CLS Program appropriate for you at this point in your academic or professional career?
- Why should the CLS Program invest in you? What is it that you bring to the program?

Section 19: Statistical Information

This information will not be shared with application reviewers and will have no bearing on your selection for the CLS Program. It may be used in aggregate for the production of external reports or public presentations.

The U.S. Department of State and American Councils welcome all eligible applications and do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, geographic location, socioeconomic status, disability, sexual orientation or gender identity.

The information you provide below will not affect your eligibility for the award, or have an impact on the evaluation or selection process.
